

• education •

Bachelor of Architecture - 1980

Bachelor of Science Environmental Design - 1980

Ball State University College of Architecture and Planning
Muncie, Indiana

Bachelor of Arts - 1975

DePauw University

Greencastle, Indiana

• experience •

Array Architecture + Interiors, Inc. – 2012 - present

TGS Architects, Inc. – 1997 – 2012

Leech Architects, Inc. – 1982 – 1991

Stanley Architects, Inc. – 1980 – 1982

• active registration •

Indiana

Arkansas

Florida

Illinois

Kentucky

Minnesota

Ohio

Oklahoma

Pennsylvania

Tennessee

Texas

Wisconsin

• professional affiliations •

The Construction Specifications Institute

Indiana Society for Health Care Engineering

Indiana Hospital and Health Association

National Rural Health Association

Indiana Federation of Ambulatory Surgery Centers

Ohio Association of Ambulatory Surgery Centers

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards

• profile •

I've been a practicing professional architect for over 30 years. I've chosen to practice architecture in relatively small firm surroundings, affording me to be involved from marketing to project inception to completion of construction, thus enabling me to practice "who you see is who you get" and be a proponent of evidence based design in healthcare that is user driven.

• notable projects •

Witham Health Services – North Pavilion Addition; Lebanon, IN

Provena Cancer Center Renovation; Danville, IL

Advanced Urology Associates Oncology Center; Joliet, IL

Riley Children's Hospital Outpatient Surgery Center; Indianapolis, IN

University Hospital GI Renovation; Indianapolis, IN

Putnam County Hospital – Surgery and Maternity Suite Addition; Greencastle, IN

Methodist Medical Plaza – all locations; Indianapolis, IN